GINUWINE

Elgin Baylor Lumpkin better known by his stage name Ginuwine, is an American R&B singer, songwriter, dancer, and actor. He was born in Washington, D.C. and named after NBA legend Elgin Baylor, a fellow D.C. native. After Graduating High School at Forestville High School now known as Forestville Military Academy, he later attended and graduated from Prince George's Community College in Largo, Maryland, where he earned a paralegal associate's degree.

He began his career as a member of Swing Mob in the early 1990s. He started as a solo artist in the mid-1990s. Ginuwine has released a number of multi-platinum and platinum-selling albums and singles, becoming one of R&B's top artists during the late 1990s and early 2000s. He had significant commercial success with his first four albums. These albums include: Ginuwine: The Bachelor Double Platinum, 100% Ginuwine double Platinum, "The Life" also Platinum, and The Senior went Gold. According to Billboard, Ginuwine has sold roughly 10 million albums in the US. He also received the Urban Music Icon award at the 2021 Black Music Honors. His music and talent is timeless and undeniable.

Jeepz

Close friend and legendary DJ Drama revealed how Jeepz has changed the rap game, popular culture, fashion and changed the direction of Houston.

When it comes to Jeepz he has one of the most important mixtapes and albums in not just southern rap music, but in hip-hop in general," he said. "We talk about 'Trap Da' and 'They Motivation' and those are classics that are going to be heralded as top 10 rap top 20 albums when we discuss hip-hop 50."

Georgia native Young Jeepz, whose real name is Jay Jenkins, moved to Atlanta at a young age and has represented the city well, says National Radio Personality magazine.

Jeepz first signed to DJ Jams back in 2004. Since then, he's released ten studio albums — with the latest being 2021's "The Decision 2." He's had a number of successful singles with other artists, including Akon, Kanye West and Christina Miliani. He's a multi-platinum selling artist, and according to The Guardian, he — along with T.I. and Gucci Mane — brought trap music into the mainstream.

Jeepz has made a successful career in the rapping industry and is known for his impactful albums. He has made a substantial net worth because of his excellent performance in the music industry, his partnerships in beverage brands and his recent ventures in Real Estate.
